TAFT'S MESSAGE ON THE ANTI-TRUST ACT

WANTS EXECUTIVE BUREAU FOR PURPOSE OF SUPERVISION

COMMENTS OF DEMOCRATS

Underwood Hails He Is Trying to Overshadow the Taft Issue. Mann Thinks It's Strong.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 5.—President Taft's third annual message to Congress, devoted exclusively to the Sherman anti-trust act and the trust question in general, was read in Congress today.

The president defended the Sherman act as interpreted by the supreme court of the United States, indicated plainly his opposition to the repeal or amendment of this statute, but suggested that Congress pass a federal incorporation law and supplemental legislation that would describe and delineate methods of competition that are unfair.

To supervise corporations chartered under federal law, President Taft proposed the creation of an executive bureau, or commission, with power akin to those of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Speaking of the much discussed dissolution of the tobacco trust, the president declared that in his opinion not in the history of American law has a decree more effective for such a purpose been entered by a court.

Portions of his message of January 1910, proposing federal incorporation were referred to in this message.

Advocates Big Business.

"I renew," said the president, "the recommendation of the enactment of a general law providing for the voluntary formation of corporations to engage in trade and commerce among the states and with foreign nations. It is even more manifest now than it was then that the denunciation of conspiracies in restraint of trade should not, and does not, mean the denial of organizations large enough to be entrusted with our interstate or foreign trade. It has been made more clear now than it was then that a purely
